Objective: to obtain an position in online reporting and production

Journalism Experience (School):

The Daily Eastern News, Charleston, Ill.

Online Interactive Editor

Spring 2007

- began a 5-minute Daily Eastern News podcast that served as more of a radio format that was streamed Monday through Thursday on dennews.com; started running at least one slideshow a week for dennews.com; wrote a blog a week and posted it to the site myself
- continued to write for the paper, mostly for the sports section, did an average of two stories a week

Pounce Editor

Fall 2007

- in charge of all operations of the magazine-oriented Web site PounceOnline; in charge of scheduling meetings, giving out assignments, making sure everyone gets material in on time
- increased online publication rate from once every two weeks from previous semesters to once a week; also as opposed to previous semesters, we published all our own content
- increased interactivity on Pounce to not only post slideshows and podcasts, but multimedia packages that compose stories, slideshows and podcasts all in one
- For Pounce slideshows, began assembling some without much help: took my own photos, gathered my own audio, and posted the slideshow
- continued to work sporadically for the Daily Eastern News and dennews.com (where I continued to blog and put together slideshows on a regular basis)

Online Reporter

Spring 2008

- put together online Web packages that consisted of slideshows, podcasts, videos, stories and graphics
- was the first person in my 2.5 years at Eastern to assemble these packages into their own Web sites off of the main dennews.com Web site

Journalism Experience (Internships/Work):

Journal Gazette/Times-Courier Internship, Mattoon, Ill.

Summer 2007

Online/Design Intern

- worked on online assignments where I both gathered and edited my own audio using Audacity
- designed the Markets, Obituaries and Features pages Monday through Friday
- covered a feature story for the paper; copy edited in between design work
- regularly attended News meetings where I discussed online topics with the online editor
